LOBE DEN HERREN

Psalm of the Day

Psalm 50:1-6

Congregation

The mighty one, God the Lord, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth.

Our God comes and does not keep silence, before God is a devouring fire, and a mighty tempest all around the Lord.

God calls to the heavens above and to the earth, that the people of the Lord may be judged: "Gather to me my faithful ones, who made a covenant with me by sacrifice!"

The heavens declare God's righteousness, for the Lord God is judge.

We hear the voice of God through these words.

Thanks be to God!

Silent Confession

Congregation

Assurance of Pardon

Rev. Tidsworth

Hear, O Church, the good news of the Gospel. When we confess our sins,
God, who is faithful and just, will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Thanks be to God!

II Kings 2:1-12

Ken Zuercher

Now when the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel. The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?" And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent." Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here; for the LORD has sent me to Jericho." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho. The company of prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?" And he answered, "Yes, I know; be silent." Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground. When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit." He responded, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not." As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, "Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

We hear the voice of God through these words. Thanks be to God.

Pastoral Prayer

Rev. Tidsworth

The Lord's Prayer

Congregation

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Anthem

Go Up to the Mountain of God

c. Michael Helman

Go up, go up to the mountain of God where Christ transfigured shines as the morning star.
Gaze in awe and wonder upon the beauty of Jesus the Lord: alleluia, alleluia.
Go up, go up to the mountain of God and speak with prophets Moses, Elijah.
Join with all the angels and saints in praising the incarnate Word: alleluia, alleluia.
Go up, go up to the mountain of God and hear the loving Father proclaiming:
This is my beloved Son. Hear His word and follow His way. Alleluia, alleluia
Go up, go up to the mountain of God and there renew your faith in the Son of God.
May your life of faith reflect the light of Christ to the world. Alleluia, alleluia.

New Testament Reading

Mark 9:2-9

Rev. Tidsworth

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, "This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!" Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

We hear the voice of God through these words. Thanks be to God.

Toccata in A minor

arr. Sweelinck

Please use this time to reflect upon our worship together.

White is the color that adorns our altar table and pulpit this morning. It is also the color of light.
White symbolizes the Creator, joy, purity, innocence, glory and perfection.

*The flowers on the altar table this morning are given by Inez Bunch in memory of Joe Dawes.
The flowers in the narthex this morning are given in honor of Ann Hampton's 100th birthday, February 21.*

Following the service, please join us in the narthex for fellowship and refreshments.

Shrove Pancake Supper

Shrove Tuesday, the day before the start of Lent, traditionally features the eating of rich foods made of sugar, eggs, oil and so on which would not be eaten during the penitential period of Lent. Come celebrate this final day before Lent at our annual Pancake supper this Tuesday at 6pm.

Lent is a special season in our lives when we journey with Christ toward the cross. This year our theme is Letting Go and Taking Hold, an apt description of the spiritual life. We invite you to join us as we journey together with Christ through this Forty Days of Lent beginning this Wednesday with a special service in the sanctuary at 6:30 p.m.

Easter Lily Orders

If you would like a lily placed in the sanctuary on Easter Sunday in honor or memory of someone special, please fill out an order form, on the table beside the church office, and return it to the church by March 19. They are $13 each. Make sure to take the lily home with you after the Easter Service.

International Luncheon at USC

Every Friday, from September through May, church and civic groups prepare sandwiches, fruits, vegetables, cookies and order pizzas to provide sustenance for these students. They offer not only food, but also hospitality and conversation. Kathwood has accepted the opportunity to serve these students food and conversation this Friday, February 24. See Pam Greenlaw if you are willing to help.
